AABA Volunteers: Legal Aid Clinic for Veterans

On Saturday May 9, 2015, volunteers on behalf of the AABA, the Woodlands Bar, Houston Volunteer Lawyers, and the Houston Bar Association staffed a busy VA Legal Aid Clinic in Conroe at the VA Outpatient Clinic. Together, the volunteers helped 24 veterans and their families address issues related to probate, family law, real estate, tax and VA benefits. A warm thanks to Tara Shockley and Kay Sim of the HBA, Andrew Lehmann and Billy Moreno of HVL for organizing the clinic, and the clinic volunteers, including David Himes, a veteran of the US Marine Corps. A very special thanks to the veterans and their families who attended the legal aid clinic. It was an honor to serve those who have served our country!
On April 29, 2015, the AABA hosted a Wills Clinic Training & CLE in preparation for the Wills Clinic on June 13, 2015. Many thanks to the training instructor, Peter Bennett, and to Gardere Wynne Sewell LLP for hosting the training. A special thanks to Albert Liou for assisting with and organizing the event.

The AABA is still in need of volunteers to serve as notaries or witnesses for the actual day of the Wills Clinic on June 13, 2015. Please contact Janet Brown at janet.brown@cevalogistics.com if you are able to assist at the clinic.
The AABA was invited to join the Houston Multi-Bar Diversity Committee, comprised of other minority bar associations and the Stonewall Law Association of Greater Houston, to draft a diversity report for Houston’s 20 largest law firms. A press conference was held on May 20, 2015 to announce the results of the report.
Congratulations to Claire Lin and her husband Howard on the birth of their daughter, Katherine Grace!

Thank you to Brendon Singh for serving as the AABA’s 2014-2015 Board representative on the Houston Lawyer Referral Service (HLRS)!

Congratulations to Jennifer Fung for being appointed the AABA’s representative for the 2015-2016 term!

About the Exhibition
Through the works of six contemporary artists, Andrea Bowers, Margarita Cabrera, Blanc De St. Croix, Tony de los Reyes, Zhi Lin, and Hung Liu, The Other Side explores recurring issues of immigration, border relations, and labor practices that have persisted throughout U.S. history and remain timely today. While the works employ different styles and references and span different historic periods, geographic locations, cultural influences, and gender perspectives, they are bound together by the common threads of memory, history, identity, and humanity. By presenting these emotionally poignant and conceptually engaging works, The Other Side offers viewers a humanized perspective on complex immigration issues often overshadowed by mass media and politics.
