AABA-HOUSTON ANNOUNCEMENTS & EVENTS

Thank You from Outgoing President

Dear AABA Family,

We have had an incredible year—we have a record number of members, set fundraising records, and added more programming than ever. Thank you so much for being a part of it. Thank you so much to the Directors, Officers, and Committee Chairs for doing the heavy lifting. I couldn't have done it without you.

I also want to congratulate our newly elected 2020 offices:

President Elect: Sarah Tejada
VP of Membership: Grace Ho
VP of Development: Lily Ung Leal
VP of Community Relations: Cindy Dinh
VP of Programs: Cathleen Chang
Secretary: Josh Lee
Treasurer: David Hsu
Elected Director: Daniel Hu

We're so lucky to have Judy as our President next year, and we're in good hands with the incoming leadership.

If you thinking about getting involved next year, but unsure, I encourage you to reach out to Judy. AABA only works because its members invest their time to make AABA work for them. I challenge you all to think about what your goals for the New Year and how the AABA can help you make that happen. The AABA is here to serve its members, but can't do it effectively without knowing what you need. So let us know.

It was an honor to serve this year and to bring to life new and relevant programming. I'm so encouraged by the abundance of fresh ideas and excited to see events that Judy has in store for 2020.

Faithfully Yours,

Jennifer Fung
President - 2019

AABA Member News

After last year's unfortunate decision by the Harris County Clerk's Office (HCCO), the Community & Pro Bono Committee has been working with the Korean American Voter's League (KAVL) and the HCCO to come to provide a solution to allow KAVL to provide much needed translation services to our Korean-American neighbors and organize KAVL's Early Voting Day. Thanks to the Community & Pro Bono Committee's fantastic work, the AABA was able to advocate for our community's right to have these services and facilitate productive conversations with the HCCO's new administration. Thank you to Daniel Lee (Haynes and Boone), Andrew Kim (Greenberg Traurig), Cindy Dinh (Mayer Brown), Heaven Chee (Yetter Coleman), Robert Landicho (Vinson & Elkins), Sang Shin (Jackson Walker) and Jennifer Fung (U.S. Physical Therapy).
